

Le Tacot: Railway line from La Ferté-sous-Jouarre to Montmirail

This 45-km metre-gauge short-line railway is no longer in operation.

It was granted to the departmental railroad company (CFD) and linked the two cities via the valley of Petit Morin from its opening in 1889 until it was closed in 1947.

Stroll through our history

- 1 Cross D68, follow Rue de Courcilly to return to D68 on the right, continue for about 700 m, passing the old military milestone. Then turn left onto the road leading downhill to Busserolles.
- 2 Turn left on Rue du Rond des Fées, cross D 31 to follow Rue des Vieux Clos. At the bend, take the path to the left, cross Le Petit Morin. Turn onto the road to the right and walk through “Les hameaux” (hamlets).
- 3 Upon exiting the village, turn left onto the grassy path and then take the next path on the left. Continue straight until you reach the road. Go down on the road to the left until you reach Saint Barthelemy Place in Saint-Ouen-sur-Morin.
- 4 Walk to the right for 50m, take Chemin de la Fontaine to the left. It leads to a spring and a washhouse. Pass these sites and enter the woods and continue until you reach the end of the arboretum.
- 5 Then turn around, return past fountain and turn right towards the sports fields. Follow the Petit-Morin to the left on the winding path. Follow D68 to the right and return to the Saint-Ouen-sur-Morin stop.

The trail markings on this route are installed and maintained by 250 footpath wardens from the Seine-et-Marne departmental hiking committee. (Codérando 77). It is part of a network of 4,500 km of walking and hiking trails in the department. If you notice any irregularities during your hikes (errors or lack of markings, poor maintenance, illegal waste disposal), please inform Codérando 77 via the website <http://sentinelles.sportsdenature.fr/> by selecting the “hiking” activity.
