

The wash-house

Be sure to visit the lovely 19th century half-timbered wash-house which has been recently restored, only 150m away. A scene featuring washerwomen mannequins with laundry equipment can be viewed inside.

Hamlet of La Clottée

This hamlet features a "castle" from the late 19th century a farm and a few houses. The isolated farms you see along the route are also part of Brie's landscape heritage.

The apple press

This monumental apple press, unique in Île-de-France, was built in 1850 by Désiré Naveau, a member of the Compagnon du Tour de France. Its large size and double presses were able to produce hundreds of hectolitres of apple juice. It can be visited by appointment.

The market hall

This half-timbered structure dates back to the 16th century, to the time of François the First. It was recently restored.

The banks of Aubetin

- 1 Head right, cross the Aubetin by the footbridge (wash house 150 m on the left), go right and follow the stream to N 4.
- 2 Turn left onto the street parallel to the road and walk up the hill on the path to the left; enjoy the beautiful view of Beton-Bazoches. Continue in the same direction and walk down to "Les Haies" farm.
- 3 Walk around the farm, follow D75 to the left and arrive at the hamlet of Fontaine-du-Mont. At the bend, take the path to the right. It crosses the D55, a path and a wood. Turn right and then left to walk along a wood.
- 4 Go left and, just before the wood, turn right along the wood's edge. Make a left-right and, after a turn to the right, turn left. Before the hamlet of Montcel, walk down to the left, cross D15, cross the Aubetin and continue to Grand-Fretoy.
- 5 Cross the hamlet, keeping left and, after Coupigny, follow the path to N4, to the Groué hamlet.
- 6 On the wide pavement, walk along the national road to the left, then turn left. Turn right and enter Beton- Bazoches. Take Rue Tessier street on the left (pass the apple press) walk along the market hall and return to the church car park.

The trail markings on this route are installed and maintained by 250 footpath wardens from the Seine-et-Marne departmental hiking committee. (Codérando 77). It is part of a network of 4,500 km of walking and hiking trails in the department. If you notice any irregularities during your hikes (errors or lack of markings, poor maintenance, illegal waste disposal), please inform Codérando 77 via the website <http://sentinelles.sportsdenature.fr/> by selecting the "hiking" activity.
